NTC's Basic Japanese, Level 1

Author(s): Williams, Lynn

General Description: The first level of this two-level American series comprises a teacher's manual, student text, and student workbook. Teacher's manual contains aims and objectives and detailed lesson plans to match the student books. Student text is organized around broad functional topics that are suborganized into units. Each unit introduces new, relevant language. There are vocabulary lists in both kana and romaji followed by model dialogues, notes on language points, and activities. Hiragana is gradually introduced throughout. Workbook contains further activities and exercises. It is suggested that chapters one to five be used for Grade 9, chapters six to nine for Grade 10, and chapters one to nine for Introductory Japanese 11.

Obentoo 1

Author(s): Williams, Peter ... (et al.)

General Description: This first level of a two-level series comprises an extensive teacher resource file, full-colour student book, workbook, and six audio cassettes which complement the listening material in the student book and workbook. The methodology strongly supports the communicative-experiential approach to language learning. Students must already be able to recognize hiragana, as there is no introduction to this in this series.
