Administration of the Oral Component

- As the Oral Component is a recorded interview, a quiet room equipped with an Oral exam-ready computer is required. Please see the documents Technical Requirements for Language Exams and Instructions and System User’s Manual available at <http://www.bced.gov.bc.ca/eassessment/>
- An e-Practice site is available for students and teachers to familiarize themselves with the electronic format of the exam. This site is identical to the e-Administration site and can be accessed through <http://www.bced.gov.bc.ca/eassessment/>
- Technical support before and during the administration of the Oral Component is provided by A.Willock Information Systems. Non-technical questions should be directed to Gilbert Verrier at the Ministry of Education.

- Confirmation codes for completed assessments will replace Signature Sheets for electronic exams. Invigilators will print the list from the system immediately following the completion of the exam session. More details regarding how to do this can be found in the Invigilator Instructions for electronic exams. The invigilator’s signature will confirm that all students who wrote any particular exam are listed and that the identity of all students has been verified. This list should be stored by the principal for 24 months following the exam session so that student attendance can be verified if necessary.
- Following the marking session of the FRAL12 Oral Component, the Ministry will select various student exemplars to be used as pedagogical resources. These samples will be posted on the Ministry’s website and will be accessible to students and teachers. The Ministry will ensure that the identity of the student, the teacher and the school is protected. If you have any questions about this initiative or in the event that teachers would not want to have some of their Oral Component recordings used as exemplars, please contact in writing Gilbert Verrier, Coordinator, at Gilbert.Verrier@Gov.BC.Ca.
- Students are not allowed to bring any notes or prepared materials into the interview.
